

CONNOR CAUSES A DISCUSSION

Decision Of The Lieutenant-Governor Not To Run For Office Places Him In Peculiar Position.

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL SEES REASON

Says He Will Help Stephenson And Then Seek Stephenson's Seat In The Senate, Later On Demanding Promises Of Support For His Work.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Milwaukee, Wis., July 3.—The Journal today says there are two or three very significant statements in W. D. Connor's personal announcement of his withdrawal from politics. In the first place he takes caution to give more prominence to the connections of his name with the United States senate than has been generally accorded it, and then again he states specifically that he has no other "this fall." He takes pains to state that his announcement of his political plans cover the "immediate future" only.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR W. D. CONNOR.

In effect, therefore, Mr. Connor is as much a political factor today as he has been heretofore. It is believed that he will support Isaac Stephenson for the senate with the expectation of receiving the support of Mr. Stephenson and his followers, whenever an opportunity presents itself for a seat in that noted millionaire club. Should Mr. Stephenson's resignation, which is improbable, or should he be re-elected by years during the term as is not unusual, W. D. Connor could reasonably expect the aid of the Stephenson men and the students

DEMOCRATS WATCH THE COMMITTEEMAN

Fight for the National Committee-man Promises to Be a Warm One.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Milwaukee, Wis., July 3.—That great interest centers in the contest for democratic national committeeman from Wisconsin has been plainly shown by the large number of Wisconsin politicians who are "mucking their way to Denver." The contest in the race in which state chairman H. H. Hanson of Wausau and National Committeeman Ryan, who desired to succeed himself, are opponents will be settled probably Monday afternoon at the Adams House in Denver. The Wisconsin delegation expects to get together Monday morning in Denver, but it is likely that nothing more will be done at the morning session other than to informally organize. It is probable that Congressman Wolcott will be elected chairman of the delegation and either Frank Stewart or Henry Potzner secretary. Both of the delegates show the race between Chairman Hanson and Mr. Ryan is very close and the result will undoubtedly be determined by the votes of one or two delegates whose choice in the matter is problematic.

DECISION IS GIVEN UPHOLDING THE LAW

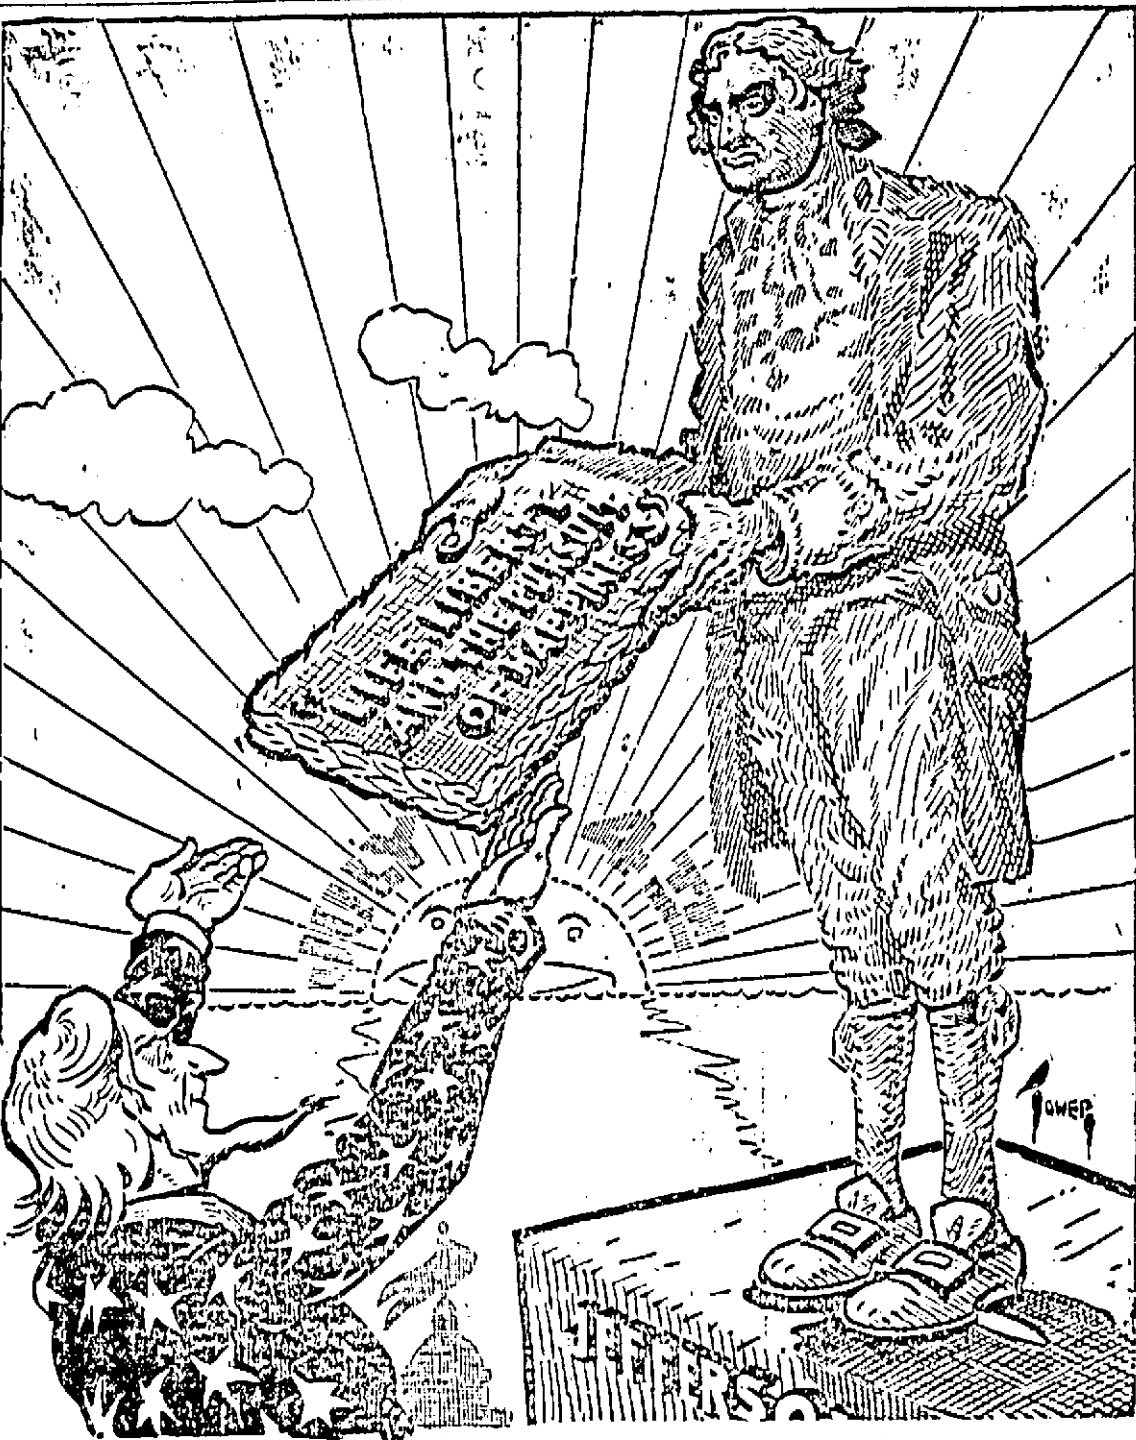

Fate of Milwaukee School Board is to Be Tested in the Supreme Court

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Milwaukee, Wis., July 3.—By a decision handed down by Judge Williams this morning the fate of the Milwaukee school board will be decided by the Wisconsin Supreme Court. The decision of Judge Williams was on the suit of the State of Wisconsin et al. against the school board, which was based upon the assumption that Chapter 459 of the laws of 1907, better known as "pose school board law" was unconstitutional. In his decision Judge Williams upholds the constitutionality of the law, dismisses the motion to oust the board and also dismisses the complaint. The plaintiff through A. C. Umbreit probably will file notice of appeal on Monday.

ELECTRIC TRAINS IN A MAD COLLISION

Fast Express Train Met Work Train Near Norwalk, Ohio, This Morning—Many Injured.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Norwalk, Ohio, July 3.—An east-bound limited car on the Lake Shore electric railway collided with a work train two miles west of the city today resulting in injuring nearly a score of persons, none fatally. It is said the motorman of the work train forgot his orders and was on the main track on the time of the limited. Want Ads. bring results.

GREAT GATHERING OF EPISCOPAL BISHOPS

Lambeth Conference Held Once in Ten Years. Will Open in London Tomorrow.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] London, July 3.—Bishops from every part of the world, including several from America, are in London to attend the Lambeth conference of bishops, which is to open tomorrow for a session that will last a full month. This assembly of bishops, which meets but once in ten years, is the greatest gathering of high churchmen in the world. This will be the fifth conference of the kind, the first having been held in 1867. The date for the opening of the conference was chosen out of compliance to the American church, which is now most powerful branch of the whole communion. The Americans, who will have a prominent part in the conference include the Episcopal bishops of Albany, Massachusetts, Tennessee, Chicago, Rhode Island, Vermont, Louisiana, Connecticut, and southern Ohio, and Conductor Bishop Veller of Fond du Lac, Wis. The churches in Canada and Australia and in other parts of the British empire will, of course, be well represented. The addresses and discussions at the conference will cover a wide range of subjects. It is expected, however, that all visitors to the convention will be cared for.

DESCENDENTS HOLD ANNUAL CONGRESS

Society Formed at Jamestown Exposition Holds First Annual Meeting.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Philadelphia, Pa., July 3.—The descendants of the signers, a society composed of the descendants of those who signed the American Declaration of Independence and which was organized at a meeting held at the Jamestown exposition last year, held its first annual congress in Philadelphia today. The first session of the gathering was held this afternoon in the room in Independence hall in which the Declaration of Independence was adopted and signed. Tomorrow another session of an historical character will be held and the members of the society will also have an important part in the usual Independence day exercises held under city auspices. The officers of the society are: President, Albert McMathewson, New Haven, Conn.; secretary, Thomas Jefferson Randolph, Norfolk, Va.; treasurer, William Shields McKean, Washington, D. C.

CORTELYOU EXPLAINS APPARENT SHORTAGE

Says in Reality the Treasury Has Sufficient Funds But Bookkeeping Is Wrong.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, D. C., July 3.—Secretary Cortelyou today gave out a statement regarding the deficit of sixty million dollars shown by the treasury statements is more apparent than real because of the antiquated bookkeeping system which is being overhauled and contending that "considering the ordinary receipts of the government there is really a surplus." GANS AND NELSON WILL MEET AGAIN ON FOURTH

Lightweights Will Battle In San Francisco At Two O'clock Saturday Afternoon.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] San Francisco, Cal., July 3.—San Francisco is already beginning to buzz with the talk of fight fans, in anticipation of the contest between Joe Gans and Battling Nelson. Tomorrow afternoon the two great lightweights are to meet again in the Mission arena in an attempt to settle the question of relative supremacy. The names of the two fighters are today on every lip, and little else is heard. The amount of interest manifested in the bout is something of a surprise, considering the fact that it is generally looked upon as a "clinch" for the dusky champion and the further fact that Nelson, since his last meeting with Gans, has met with a decisive defeat and is supposed to have gone back in condition and ability. The attention that the match has attracted in sporting circles can only be accounted for by the fact that the spectators are assured of getting their money's worth, whoever Gans and Nelson meet in the ring. In their previous bouts they have never failed to put up fast and interesting fights and there is no reason to expect that their meeting tomorrow will be an exception. Both fighters are in the best condition for the contest, if outward appearances and the confidence of their respective camps count for anything. Gans is not inclined to hold the Dane cheaply, though he is confident of his ability to put him away and expects to do the trick before the twentieth round is reached. Nelson knows what he is going against when he tackles the champion and has trained faithfully for the contest. He realizes the fact that if he loses in the fight tomorrow he is practically sure of being relegated to the list of "has-beens." In the opinion of the best critics Nelson will have a fair chance to win the bout if Gans does not secure the victory before the twentieth round. The staying powers of the colored fighter are not what they were a year or two ago and if he does not vanquish the Dane in the first half of the bout the latter may wear him down and defeat him before the end of the 45-round encounter.

SLIGHT EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS WERE FELT IN SAN FRANCISCO

TUBERCULOSIS SHOWS A STEADY DECREASE

Annual Meeting of the State Agricultural Society Hears Reports on Disease of Cattle.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., July 3.—Reports submitted to the annual meeting of the state livestock sanitary board, of which Grant U. Fisher of Janesville is a member, indicate that in the past three years the prevalence of tuberculosis among the cattle of Wisconsin has decreased to a very appreciable extent. This is attributed to the efforts of the livestock sanitary board in keeping out of the state imported animals until they have been tested and found free from disease, and also to the effective campaign of education carried on by the board of agriculture and the conductors of farm institutes. State laws have been enacted to keep out diseased cattle and the sanitary board has aggressively applied and enforced these statutes for the protection of the herds of this state. Perhaps more important than these laws has been the educational work of the institute, the sanitary board and the university experiment station, all working in harmony to the end that the farmers and dairy men of the state may appreciate the importance of having their stock tested and disposing of the diseased members of their herds. At the farm institutes, state and county fairs and at the short course in agriculture at the university, demonstrations have been made before the eyes of the farmers, in which diseased cattle have been killed and the tubercular manifestations exhibited. While these demonstrations have been exceedingly effective in spreading a sentiment in favor of better grades of stock, for strict enforcement of sanitary laws and a high regard for the tubercular test, which in times past the farmers did not think was reliable. In this valuable work, Mr. Fisher has had a large part, being a member of the sanitary board from its organization and helping to secure the enactment of the laws which have tended to protect the state from the importation of diseased western stock. At the annual meeting officers were elected for the coming year as follows: President—George McKerrrow, Pewaukee. Vice President—George Wyllie, Morrisville. Secretary—John M. True, Baraboo. President McKerrrow was absent, being in Europe. All other members of the board were present, as follows: Dr. M. P. Ravenel, bacteriologist of the University of Wisconsin; Grant U. Fisher of Janesville; Dr. David Roberts, Wausau, state veterinarian and the executive officer of the board.

LETTER CARRIERS OF GEORGIA MEET

Annual Convention of Georgia Rural Letter Carriers Called to Order Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Albany, Ga., July 3.—The annual convention of the Georgia Rural Letter Carriers association met here today and was called to order by President George D. Bessie of Statesboro. Considerable business was transacted at the morning and afternoon sessions and the carriers were also addressed by several speakers of prominence. At the concluding session tomorrow morning the association will elect officers for the ensuing year and choose delegates to the national convention at Omaha, next October.

Head of Western Federation of Miners Claims That Deportation Plans Were All Made.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Grand Junction, Colo., July 3.—That a conspiracy has been formed to start a riot during the Fourth of July celebration at Telluride which was to be followed by a general deportation of union miners is the charge made by President Mayor of the Western Federation of Miners in an open letter to the members of the federation.

WANT HUNTERS THAT LOOK FOR BIG GAME

Farmers Near Afton Discover Presence of Wild Cats on Pollard Farm.

Janesville hunters who seek big game are wanted by the residents of the River Road below Afton to aid in clearing out a pack of wild cats that have made their appearance in the woods on the Pollard farm. Two of the beasts have been seen, and while no depredations have thus far been reported the residents of the district want the animals cleaned out.

SEVERAL KILLED IN CLEVELAND TODAY

Fireworks Explode in Five- and Ten-Cent Store—Six Women Were Smothered.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Cleveland, O., July 3.—An explosion of fireworks in the five- and ten-cent store of Kresge & Co. this morning, was followed by flames bursting from the windows, which caused eleven girl employees to jump from the upper windows, four of whom were seriously injured. A large number of customers were in the store when the explosion occurred. Six bodies have just been recovered from the basement of the store. The bodies were those of five women and a boy. They were discovered on the first floor and in the basement along the flames following the explosion were smothered. All the customers escaped death, but several were more or less seriously injured by the explosion of the fireworks. About a score of persons suffered from hurts and burns. The fire started when one of the clerks was demonstrating a piece of fireworks.

WILL SHOW CAUSE MONDAY MORNING

Question of Amending Plaintiff's Complaint in Brown-Appleby Case to Come Up.

On Monday morning at ten o'clock Judge Grinn will hear the arguments on the order made by a local court commissioner directing the attorney for George Appleby to show cause why the plaintiff's attorney should not be allowed to amend his complaint. The amendment which Mr. Cunningham, attorney for John Brown, desires to make, is to insert a paragraph to the effect that the fire and police commission was not legally organized at the time of the alleged election by them of a chief of police. That one of the members had not filed his bond and therefore the no election was made by the commission even admitting they had the necessary power, as only four valid votes were cast and of these no candidate received more than two.

The section of the charter requiring a bond in section 35 and others that "the treasurer and all other officers and agents of said city shall severally before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, execute to the city of Janesville a bond, in such sum, and with such sureties as the common council shall approve conditioned that they shall faithfully execute the duties of their offices, and account for and pay over all moneys and other property received by them as such officers."

Chapter 41 of the laws of 1907, which law relates to fire and police commissions of the second and third classes, merely provides that "every person so appointed shall, before entering upon his duties, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same with the city clerk."

The question of the necessity of filing the bond will be before Judge Grinn to decide Monday morning.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Tree-Trimming on East Side: The tree-trimming force is now at work on the East Side and all sections of the Second and Third wards will presently be visited. The efforts along this line have thus far given general satisfaction and but little opposition has been encountered, people generally recognizing that appearances, both of the trees and highways, are being greatly improved. Automobile Party: A Chicago automobile party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Partridge, L. C. Partridge, and Mrs. C. M. Woodman, was registered at the Hotel Myers last evening. Want Sunday Train Service: In behalf of the resorters at Lake Koshong, City Treasurer James A. Fethering has written a letter to the C. & N. W. Ry. management asking that some sort of Sunday service be provided between this city, the lake, and Watertown. He calls attention to the fact that the motor car used for the Janesville and Hollet run is lying idle here on the first day of the week and night, in his opinion, be put into commission with profit to the company.

LOCAL BAKERIES PLAN BUILDINGS

FURNISH TERRITORY FOR MANY MILES AROUND.

IMPROVEMENTS NECESSARY

Doth Colvin and Dennison & Lane Need Much Increased Facilities.

That the bakery business in this city is prospering is well proven by the two new structures which the Colvin Baking company and the Dennison & Lane company will build this year. These two firms send out their goods to pretty nearly every city within a radius of a hundred miles from Janesville and the slight of boxes bearing the name of a Janesville baker in outside towns advertises Janesville as a bread-making center. Both factories use boxes painted red and other bright colors so that they attract attention wherever they go.

The Colvin company will build a new bakery on East Milwaukee street just west of the shape and size will be as yet unknown as there has been a change made in the original plans.

Dennison & Lane have begun work on an one-story addition with a basement to be used as a flour warehouse. The basement and foundation will be built of brick and the rest of the addition will be red brick the same as the rest of the building. The size is 65x22.

The Dennison & Lane bakery are at present making about seven thousand loaves of bread a day. Business is good and growing rapidly. This spring a dough dividing machine was installed which saves the work of a scaling machine by dividing the loaves so accurately that they do not have to be weighed afterward. This machine is so accurate that it will cut the bread to weigh within a quarter of an ounce of the weight that it should be.

For the fourth of July trade they expect to ship about ten thousand loaves of bread, one thousand dozen of buns and cookies and cakes in amounts of the same proportion. They have the names of one hundred and fifty towns on their shipping list.

The Colvin company are also preparing for the rush but just how much they would send out Mr. Colvin did not know as there were some of the smaller towns that had not sent in their orders as yet so no estimate of the amount could be made. They are at present working up to their capacity and will be rushed to keep up with their orders.

SUPPOSED LUNATIC CREATES A SCARE

Man With Pitchfork Drives Gillespie Boys From Their Farm Wednesday morning.

Evansville, July 2.—A man supposed to be crazy created quite a little excitement over near Union yesterday morning. When the Gillespie boys went out to work on the old Fairbanks farm which they rent and work in connection with the Gillespie farm a stranger armed with a pitchfork drove them off the place. John Hendricks, constable of the town of Union and C. C. Broughton, chief of police of Evansville, were sent for but by the time they arrived he was making tracks as rapidly as possible for Dunn county and as all that was wanted was possession of the farm nothing further was done.

Miss Alice Richardson who is director of music at the Allen Institute, Milwaukee is expected here the second week in July to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Richardson.

Miss Jennie Crow will teach school on Highland Center the coming year. Miss Anna Noyes and little niece, Veda Noyes, left today for a visit of a month or six weeks to friends in La Farge and other places in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Chas. Doolittle, Mrs. George Acheson and Miss Lulu Baker went to Reedsburg yesterday and will remain over the fourth with friends. John Groat of Waukesha visited his daughter, Mrs. Charles Windsor yesterday.

Mr. Davis of Juda is a guest at the home of Rev. T. W. North. Miss Mayne Hewitt of Janesville has organized a class in piano music here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schellie, Miss Stella Magoon and Charles Bullard will visit at Kegonsa Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Nettie Knudsen returned Tuesday from a visit to her sister in La Crosse.

Geo. Acheson and daughter Lola and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cadz attended the funeral of William Mau at Spring Valley yesterday.

J. C. Webley and family will spend Saturday and Sunday in Port Atkinson.

Miss Edith Fairbanks will be an over Sunday guest at the Ritty cottage in the Brooklyn camp at Kegonsa.

Frank Busack will leave next Monday for a visit to his parents in Swanton, Ohio.

Joe Blaine of Deloit will visit over Saturday and Sunday with Evansville friends.

Serve with whipped cream, or any good pudding sauce. JELL-O is sold by all Grocers at 10c per package.

STATE'S WONDERFUL WATER RESOURCES

University Issues New Book Describing One of Most Important of Resources.

Madison, Wis., July 2.—The wonderful water powers of Wisconsin and the unusual opportunities for valuable development at nominal cost are graphically described in a new book about to be issued by the State Geographical Survey under the title "The Water Powers of Wisconsin." The book, which is the work of Prof. Leonard S. Smith of the topographic and geologic engineering department of the University of Wisconsin, gives the results of the survey of some 600 miles of rivers in the state at a cost of $5,000, daily measurements for six years of the flow of the principal rivers of Wisconsin, costing $18,000; a complete description of the physical geography of the state, including not only geology and topography, but the hydrography, oils, and forest and climatic conditions, with valuable charts and tables of precipitation and temperature records. The book is profusely illustrated with 25 maps, nearly 250 tables, figures and charts, and 61 fine photographs showing the falls and rapids in various streams where vast quantities of power may be developed. An appendix of considerable importance gives a synopsis of all the dam charters granted by either territorial or state legislatures of Wisconsin since 1838.

Wisconsin Very Fortunate.
"Probably not more than half a dozen other states in the Union are so favorably situated with reference to water powers as is Wisconsin," says Prof. Smith in his bulletin. "The importance of these water powers, he points out, is greatly emphasized by the remarkable development in electrical generation and transmission of power which now makes possible the generation of power at points where it is found in quantities, even though distant from the market. The 10,000 horsepower plant being built at Kibbourn on the Wisconsin river is an example of this. If properly harnessed and developed, these powers may be made as certain and eternal as sunlight, and can not but exercise a most important influence on the development of the state, especially in the northern part. Prof. Smith urges the continuation of the survey of the waterways, that a plan and profile showing possible power developments may be made and printed for general distribution, to encourage and assist manufacturers in the establishment of plants and the development of latent power now being wasted in wild rapids and untrammelled waterfalls.

Power is Widely Distributed.
While small developments of from 10,000 to 30,000 horsepower are not wanting in Wisconsin, it is the general distribution of possible power centers throughout the whole state that characterizes the Wisconsin waterways. The total water power now developed, approximately calculated at 130,000 horsepower, is only a small proportion of the total power awaiting development. When completed, the water power plant near Superior on the St. Louis river will call for the generation of more than the present total developed power of the state—200,000 horsepower at least—which will make it second to none but the great hydro power of Niagara.

Other large water powers are merely awaiting the survey, the engineer, and the manufacturer to contribute largely to the state's valuable assets.

No River Now Gives Its Full Power.
So far as is known, no single important river of all the network of waterways has yet been made to produce its full capacity of power. The lower Fox comes nearest, with a total of 31,898 actual horsepower produced in the 25 miles between Green Bay and Lake Winnebago. This large water power has caused the district to take high rank as a center for the manufacture of paper and pulp. The Wisconsin, the Chippewa, and the St. Croix rivers are all capable of producing power equal or even exceeding that of the lower Fox.

ROCKFORD DRUNK HAD A 678 ROLL

On His Person When Picked up by Officer Sam Brown Last Night—Police News of Day.

Carrying $678 in cash, a gold watch and other valuables, and five receipts for new rent in a Swedish church, on his person, E. Gustafson of Rockford was picked up in an intoxicated condition at midnight and escorted to the police station by Officer Sam Brown. The reckless Rockford visitor paid a fine and costs amounting to $1.10 in municipal court this morning and departed with the rest of his "roll" for the temperance town to the southward.

Dr. Nichols of Albany, who forgot all about professional dignity and after imbibing too freely, was picked up by Officer Morrissey, about seven o'clock last evening, was released this morning without being taken to court. His hat was broken and his apparel had fared illly during the little "outing." The case against Thomas Connelly for drunkenness was light upon his promise to go to work in the country. Friends came to the aid of John Nolan, who was unable to pay his fine and costs of $3.10 yesterday, and he was released from jail this morning.

Fay Darlington, who pleaded guilty to the charge of being an inmate of the disorderly house on South Main street and who testified against Mrs. Rice in the preliminary examination, was unable to pay her fine and costs of $17.55 last Monday and had to take the alternative of 15 days in jail. A Rockford man paid the fine and costs last night and she was released this morning.

TOBACCO MEN TALK ON THE SITUATION

What Is Being Done in the Leaf Industry of the County—Planting Well Along.

The American Tobacco Co., which has been the active element for some weeks past, has withdrawn its buyers from the field and the movement is apparently at a close, after a campaign that has cleaned up the growing districts about as closely as any time in recent years, says the Register.

Reporters. That prices were fully maintained to the end is shown by some of the later sales made to the local branch of the American Cigar Co., which are here appended:
James C. Hanson, 1st at 24½c east. Keeley Bros., 2000 at 10½c. W. T. Post, 120 at 9½c east. John Muehl, 100 at 9½c east. Frank Peterson, 70 at 9½c east. S. A. Johnson, 120 at 10, 583c east. O. C. Tomberg, 100 at 83c, 363c east. H. A. Hubelthor, 90 at 982c east. A. Christanson, 80 at 94½c east. Wm. Lundke, 160 at 94½c east.
Two crops of 1907, John Craig 6000 and L. H. Crandall 2000, were delivered to A. Jensen & Sons at 17c, the past week.

The transfer of the O. C. Lee packing of '06 at Stoughton, some 800 cases, is being made this week to the United Cigar Manufacturers' Co., the sale having been effected in New York.

The planting of the new crop is well advanced in all sections, though a few isolated growers are not yet through. The weather continues favorable for a satisfactory growth in the fields and the prospects were seldom encouraging at this date.

The shipments out of storage reach 1408 cases and 12 car loads of bundles going to all points for the week past; 29 car loads of bundle goods were received.

Slowly the tobacco trade is getting back to normal conditions again. The greater share of the people who were loaded up with high priced stock when the panic struck the country six months ago have accepted their losses, balanced their books and are ready now to do business on a more conservative basis. The liquidating has cut deep into the capital of some concerns for many packers were carrying stock on which a loss of $10 a box was accepted. The worst is believed to be over, the limit of the sag in prices reached and already the indications are that better times can be realized. The general public have but little idea of the sacrifices the trade has passed through, and the wonder is that failures have not been more frequent. A lesson has been learned that will leave a deep and lasting impression. It ought to be many years before the errors of '06 will be repeated. Neither do dealers need to be so often reminded that the reckless buying of tobacco in the fields is a mighty risky business.

It is the superior school which sets the bad example, which depraves youth, habituating it to idleness and encouraging revolutionary principles. (Continued on St. Petersburg.)

Why the Editor Was Absent.

As our wife was not physically able to put a patch on our only pair of trousers last Saturday we could not attend the lecture given at the First Baptist church by Rev. Mr. Newman. His remarks were on the Holy Land. (Homestead (Pa.) Quam.)

ROUSING SEND-OFF FOR NEWLY MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krueger Had to Hide in Garret and Cellar to Escape Groom's Friends.

In the wedding of Miss Mae Hopkins and Edward Krueger at the home of the bride's parents on Milwaukee avenue last evening, the department friends of the groom displayed an interest which was appreciated by neither of the principals. Miss Mae Krueger was bridesmaid, August Krueger attended the groom, and Rev. W. P. Christy performed the ceremony.

While the reception was in progress a score of uninvited guests appeared upon the scene armed with a pair of hand-cuffs, with the announced intention of chastising Mr. Krueger to a tree for the night. Recognizing among the invaders a number of the call men of the fire department, all well known to him through his associations with the West Side branch, the groom lost no time in betaking himself to the attic, while the bride with equal haste concealed herself in the basement. Eight of the valiant firemen promptly raised a ladder to the second story but upon gaining entrance to that floor found that the object of their pursuit had not only gained the protection of the roof, but had also closed the trap door and made it fast.

Having no axes handy and their powers of persuasion proving unavailing, the delegation presently departed for the home on North Franklin street which had been prepared for the young couple's occupation. After the furniture had been "struck" and any semblance of order had given way to confusion and chaos, the merry mischief makers arranged to call on Mr. and Mrs. Krueger as soon as they should be "at home" to their friends, and repaired to their respective dwellings. Both young people are well and favorably known in the city and will have the sympathy of the entire community while they are fighting their disordered household. The groom, at present, holds the position of assistant tree-trimmer.

THE REAL CAUSE

The Ancient Scalp-Fever Theory Exploded.
At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a favorable condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried cuticle in scales.
Professor Anna, Hilmberg, Germany, noted authority on skin diseases, explodes this theory and says that dandruff is a germ disease.
This germ is really responsible for the dandruff and for so many bald heads. It can be cured if it is gone about in the right way. The right way, of course, and the only way, is to kill the germ.
Newbro's Hordeloid does this, and permits the hair to grow luxuriantly, just as nature intended it should. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Hordeloid Co., Detroit, Mich.

CLINTON GOES AHEAD; ITS GOOD ROAD WORK

Clinton Barker Describes the Work Being Done on the Highways of the Township.
Clinton, July 2.—The sample road built east of town last season by the government is already bearing fruit. For the past two weeks or more a piece of road similarly constructed is being built on the Lake Shore road south-west of town at the village Hunk.
The stone portion is 9 feet wide and is put on in layers and rolled down with the steam machine purchased by the township. A better grade of stone however is being used than went into the road made last year. The stone material now employed is crushed hardpan purchased east of here and shipped in by railroad and costs $1.10 per cubic yard. This is splendid material and while it does not roll down as readily as quarry stone it makes a more durable substance. Chairman B. S. Jones has the work in charge which is now nearing completion. Some trouble has been experienced in using the roller on so high an earth grade the tendency of the heavy machine being to slip into the ditch when rolling the edges and then jack screws and other devices are employed to get the big thing on to the stone. Mr. Jones says they have also been annoyed and much damage done the work by thoughtless farmers driving out to the stone before it had been rolled and while it still lay in a loose condition. The boards put up to guard against this were even taken down and teams driven onto the work.

QUIET WEDDING OF A MILTON COUPLE

Daughter of Professor and Mrs. A. R. Crandall Married on Wednesday.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Milton, July 2.—A quiet but very pleasant wedding was solemnized July 1st at the home of Professor and Mrs. A. R. Crandall at Milton. It was the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ellen Crandall, with Mr. Mark H. Place. The wedding was attended by relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by President William C. Daland of Milton College, assisted by the Rev. Lewis A. Platts, D. D., the bride's pastor. Miss Crandall is an accomplished violinist and has for several years taught in the school of music at Milton college, having the leadership of the college orchestra. Mr. Place is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and is a rising civil engineer. They are enjoying their honeymoon at the Green cottage, Lake Koshkonong.

Owing to other engagements of the players there will not be any band concert Saturday evening, July 4. James C. Bond and wife of Hinton, West Va., arrived in the village Wednesday.

Joe. T. Smith of Oakland, Calif., called on W. P. Clarke Wednesday.

They had not met since the close of the civil war. Mr. Smith was a student in Milton Academy in the "sixties," his home at that time being Richmond.

Capt. Phly Norcross of Janesville renewed Milton acquaintanceships Wednesday.

The Barton tobacco warehouse has closed down until after the Fourth of July.

Dr. Geo. W. Post of Chicago was in the village Thursday.

On Tuesday, July 2, the Plymouth band and Abbot band held a joint picnic at Charley Bluff, Lake Koshkonong. A number of band concert and baseball game are among the attractions.

King's Daughters meet Monday at 3 o'clock with Mrs. D. P. McWilliams.

GIBBS LAKE VISITED BY THE CYCLONE

Gibbs Lake, July 2.—This vicinity was visited Tuesday afternoon by a cyclone which was about 40 rods wide and which did a great amount of damage, taking down barns, windmills, tobacco sheds, and other small buildings, breaking windows and taking out trees by the roots. One road was so lined with fallen trees as to be impassable. Lumber is scattered all over the tobacco and corn fields and fences were also blown down. Quite a number of the sheds contained farm implements which were also very much damaged by the falling timbers. At Chas. Honcke's as his son Charles was tying a horse in the barn the building was struck, pinning the boy and his cousin under straw and lumber, and killing the horse. After a great amount of clearing away Charles was found and fortunately escaped with an injured back and the cousin was uninjured.

Mrs. Wm. Mosher met with quite an accident Monday morning by falling and dislocating her right shoulder. While it was quite painful she is getting along nicely.

Ernest Kolm of Watertown, Wis., is visiting with Wm. Handtke and looking over his threshing outfit.

PRETTY WEDDING AT MILTON JUNCTION

Milton Junction, July 2.—A quiet home wedding was witnessed by a few relatives and near friends at the residence of R. C. Maxwell on Rock River on the evening of June 25. At the appointed hour to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, played by Miss Edna Jewett, the contracting parties advanced and stood beneath a bower made of fern and pond lilies, where the Rev. Edwin Shaw of Milton pronounced the words which united Cleo Meryl Hughes and Frank Hamilton Maxwell in wedlock. They were attended by Lester Hull, cousin of the groom, and Miss Ella Foreman. The bride is one of Jackson Center's prominent young ladies. The groom is too well known here to need mention, save only he is one of Milton Junction's best citizens. Many beautiful and useful presents were received from friends near and far. The mother of the bride, Mrs. James A. Hughes, came from her home in Jackson Center to witness the ceremony. The couple expect to remain on the farm, where they will be at home to their many friends after Aug. 1.

Ralph Bagleton and Roy Vincent left Tuesday night for South Dakota. Orrin Phillips returned to her home in Beloit after a week's visit with Cassie Gray.

A Wonder to Her.
No woman is able to understand how a man can be comfortable with so much on above the waist.

There's nothing like bread made from Golden Meal Flour.
May it in Janesville.

Keep Out of Debt.
The man who is deeply in debt has put a halter round his neck which his creditors can pull taut at any time. He is no longer his own master. Other men know his necessities make him "approachable." His integrity is suspected, his honesty questioned.

To Raise Sunken Vessels.
Compressed air is recommended by Combes, Paris, as the best means of raising sunken vessels, and the Journal says the old methods should be abandoned. It points to a number of big boats which have been rescued from the deep this way.

The Wise Course.
More than half of us wear masks. Far better be a jolly sham than a mourner over ghosts.

The Historian's Size.
Macnulty was destitute of bodily accomplishments. He could neither swim nor ride nor drive nor skate nor snoot. But he viewed his deficiencies with indifference touched with humor. When in attendance at Windsor as a cabinet minister, the historian was informed that a horse was at his disposal. "If her majesty wishes to see me ride," said he, "she must order out an elephant."—Youth's Companion.

A Permanent Position.
There was not even standing room in the six o'clock crowded car, but one more passenger, a young woman, wedged her way along just inside the doorway. Each time the car took a sudden lurch forward she fell helplessly back, and three times she landed in the arms of a large, comfortable man on the back platform. The third time it happened he said quietly: "Hadden't you better stay here?"

Upholstering

is my specialty. There are many people who have furniture that needs to be upholstered. Many people who would not think well of their furniture if they saw it in some other house, yet they delay from day to day having the work done, fearing the cost. The cost of upholstering and refinishing is but a trifle compared with the value. If you are in doubt as to costs talk it over with me, new phone 764, and I will estimate the cost for you. This will not mean that you must have the work done, it places you under no obligation. I will gladly give any information.

CITY WILL HAVE A QUIET FOURTH

MANY PEOPLE WILL GO TO NEIGHBORING TOWNS FOR THE DAY.

NO GENERAL CELEBRATION

Matches in Afternoon and Dance at Night for the Members of the Golf Club.

Fourth of July in Janesville, with the exception of the small boys' noisy observation, will be marked by a lack of any general celebration. Many people are planning to spend the day at the neighboring lakes or in towns where there will be celebrations. F. T. Atkinson has his home on the last three days of this week and many will go there. The amusement committee has been making arrangements for this affair for some weeks and a big time is promised. Heloit, Edgerton and Footville will also attract Janesville people as big celebrations have been arranged for in each of those places.

Golf Club
At the Hunted Golf club in the afternoon there will be a match between the members of the club who are over fifty and the younger men. The exact number in the two teams has not been determined as many as can be matched will play. The prize for the winning team has not been chosen as yet. A putting contest for the lady members will also be held off for which prizes have been donated by various members of the club. The weekly bridge party will be held tomorrow afternoon beginning at two-thirty, instead of on Thursday afternoon as is usual.

In the evening will occur the sixth and last dance of the first series of summer dances at the clubhouse. The executive committee of the Hunted Golf club have arranged the following day schedule to go into effect July fourth and to continue from that date on. The day will meet at Magnolia avenue every week afternoon the cars leaving at 1:10, 2:20, 3:30, 4:40, 5:50 and 7:10 and on Tuesday evening the bus will meet the cars leaving the Myers House corner at 7:10 and 8:20 P. M.

LOST THEIR MONEY IN MINING SWINDLE

Rock County Men Interested in American-Mexico Mining Co.—Promoters Indicted.

Among the thirteen thousand victims of the American-Mexico Mining swindle were T. Richardson of Evansville and P. H. Hale of Stoughton. Eight promoters of the scheme were indicted in Chicago yesterday by the federal grand jury.

The company was incorporated some time ago under the laws of South Dakota and through a cleverly obtained through a stockholder or the government officials have been investigating the company for the past two years.

It is said that the company owned a couple of small worked-out mines and with these, a fine suit of offices, and elaborately engraved stock certificates, were able to gull the public out of about $1,500,000.

For County Treasurer.
I wish to present myself as a candidate for nomination for the office of County Treasurer on the republican ticket at the coming primary election. My experience on the County Board of Supervisors, upon which I am serving my fourth term, and also many years of work as a bookkeeper have, I believe, qualified me to properly perform the duties of this office and I ask the consideration of the voters of the county.

W. O. WOODRUFF.

BREWERIES TO GIVE UP LOCAL DEPOTS?

City Attorney Maxfield Holds That Licenses Can No Longer Be Issued to Outside Concerns.

With the Hotels Myers and London still to be heard from, fifty applications for saloon licenses have been filed with the city clerk. The legal limit on the number of licenses which can be granted in Janesville is about 50, the law providing that not more than one permit for every 250 inhabitants or fraction thereof may be issued. With regard to the licensing of the outside brewing companies to conduct their depots here, an interesting question has been raised by the 1907 session law which provides that after the first Tuesday of July, 1908, no license for the vending of malt and spirituous liquors shall be issued to any person not a citizen of the United States and a resident of the city or town in which the said license is granted. City Attorney Maxfield holds that the operation of this law will prevent the city of Janesville from permitting the Grand, Blitz, and Schell Brewing Cos. to operate their depots here. The only way for them to get around this will be to have their resident agents take out the licenses, but if this is done it will be necessary for the companies to transact all their local business in the names of these agents. Otherwise, it seems likely that under the interpretation of the law they will be prevented, not only from operating depots but also from having their own wagons on the streets, the courts having held in this connection that a brewery wagon constitutes a "depot" when operated by a non-resident concern. The law, of course, will not prevent them from shipping their products here and having conveyances to deliver them, providing they are definitely consigned to some licensed dealer.

THE SPIRIT OF '76.

A patriotic drama staged for moving pictures and shown at the Nickelodeon today and Saturday. Colonial atmosphere pervades every movement of this stirring film. The scene is laid in Philadelphia, the year 1776, the British in possession of the city and restoring in the streets. The drama follows the career of one Harry Grey, captain of the Colonial army, and his sweetheart, Pamela, a love story founded on facts, a tale of a woman's heroism in the days of '76. This film offers all children an opportunity to see in living pictures something they have heretofore learned only in books. It takes you back over 200 years, to see face to face the great American generals, statesmen and early settlers who made it possible for a poor born American lad to become President of the greatest nation on earth. To meet face to face Washington, Lafayette, Schuyler and Jefferson, the men who inspired the indomitable spirit of '76 which has made this the most progressive and enlightened of all nations.

Truly the story is as follows: One Harry Grey, captain of the Colonial army, is anything but a hero to the ladies. Pamela, at the door of his home, is scorned by his negro servant who he must fly immediately if he will escape.

Major Green of the Majesty's Army is quartering his troops at the homes of this stricken city and takes up his own quarters at the home of Pamela. The night before the battle which has been planned Major Green carelessly leaves the plans lying on the table. They are discovered by Pamela who decides to inform Washington. It is a difficult task, but she dresses up in the uniform of Major Green, takes the plans, and rides rapidly to the camp of Washington. He immediately arouses the soldiers and they move. The girl returns to her home just as the British army start out on their errand of slaughter. A dispatch bearer arrives from Teyon's army and delivers to General Cornwallis the startling message: "The British have crossed the Delaware."

Manager Corners is to be congratulated upon securing such an appropriate story for the Fourth.

The services of the bureau are free as it is part of the social work of the Civic Service House in cooperation with the Y. M. C. A., the Economic club and the Women's Educational and Industrial union.

Professor Frank Parsons is the originator of the idea and he has succeeded in interesting in his enterprise Mrs. Whitney Payne, President of the Y. M. C. A., Robert Trent Payne and many other educators and moneyed men.

The first vocational bureau was opened at Meyer Bloomfield's Civic Service House and 28 young men and women have been able to find for what work they were adapted. Since applications are coming so numerous that the present rooms and teaching force are overtaxed, additional facilities for carrying on the work will be secured. The effects of this work will be wide and far-reaching.

It is not attempted to decide for an applicant what work he shall take up but he is helped to decide for himself through a study of the conditions of success and by a study and learning of himself.

The method of operation is as follows: The ancestry, family, education, experience, interests, aptitudes, abilities, limitations and resources of each applicant are inquired into; the memory is tested and the general intelligence, so far as is possible, the senses also and the delicacy of touch, nerve, sight and hearing reactions are tested where these seem to be important elements in the problem. For example, an artist should have a good visual memory and delicacy of touch.

D. S. Park of Lyons, Iowa stopped off here briefly last week while on his way home from a short visit with his brother at Sparta, and a son at Portage.

Harold Bruce and Jay Green are thinking now of attending the Baptist convention to be held in Cleveland next week.

S. G. Lake's new house is growing rapidly.

J. I. Tower, editor of the Kankana Sun, like W. G. Weeks, editor of the Delavan Republican, has lately sold out and gone into the Texas land agency business.

Our people were somewhat surprised on Monday last to learn that Mr. A. McMaster and Mrs. Ada Everhart had been to Janesville and been married.

Mrs. Mabel Human and Mrs. Ida Engstrom of Beloit were Clinton visitors on Thursday.

R. W. and Mrs. Cheever are spending a few days in Chicago.

A short time ago J. P. Kemperer had a fine coat made by his new assistant, his being killed and Wednesday night J. H. Green had a horse die that he valued at $500. It was the one for which he traded the coat above mentioned.

J. T. Jewett, wife and lady friend of Pueblo, Colo., were calling on his old time Clinton friends. Years ago he was a resident here. They were on their way home after having been East to attend the supreme meeting of the K. & L. of 3, of which order he is an officer.

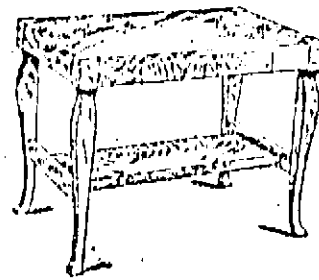

Several parties of our people are already spending some time at the lake.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Blessed is the woman who possesses a large porch, front side or back. If it is the big generous kind they call "galleries" in the south, she has no great blessing as the woman who has a porch in front, with eucalyptus, ferns, palms and willow chairs, and perhaps a swinging seat, she will offer an irresistible attraction to all her friends, men, women, boys and girls, not to speak of the children, who don't count, anyway, and are "the whole thing" at the same time. If she is the kind of a housekeeper, who has a reputation for delicate cooking, things to drink and delicate water-cakes, made just as Great Aunt Eliza both made them, always kept in a great stone jar in the pantry, except when they are being received with signs of satisfaction by the visitors, she will never have a lonely minute. Even the housewife will offer no greater pleasure than she, with her modest hospitality and cheery welcoming smile.

If the porch is at the side of the house made it pleasant with screens and eucalyptus with flowers, and eat your breakfast there. The father of the family, who cannot get out of the town, will feel that he gets some share of the pleasures of the good old summer time after a dainty cool meal, served in the open air.

If the back of the house is the possession of this treasure, don't feel sorry, but make it shady with screens and curtains, have a work table and chairs and do most of your housework there. If you do your own work, and induce your maid to use it if you don't. One end should be set aside for the children to have their playthings in and they should be made to feel that it is their own, to play in just as they please. Here a swinging seat is doubly appreciated and the small owner of such a summer home will play out in the good fresh air and gather health and fun almost as fast as at the shore.

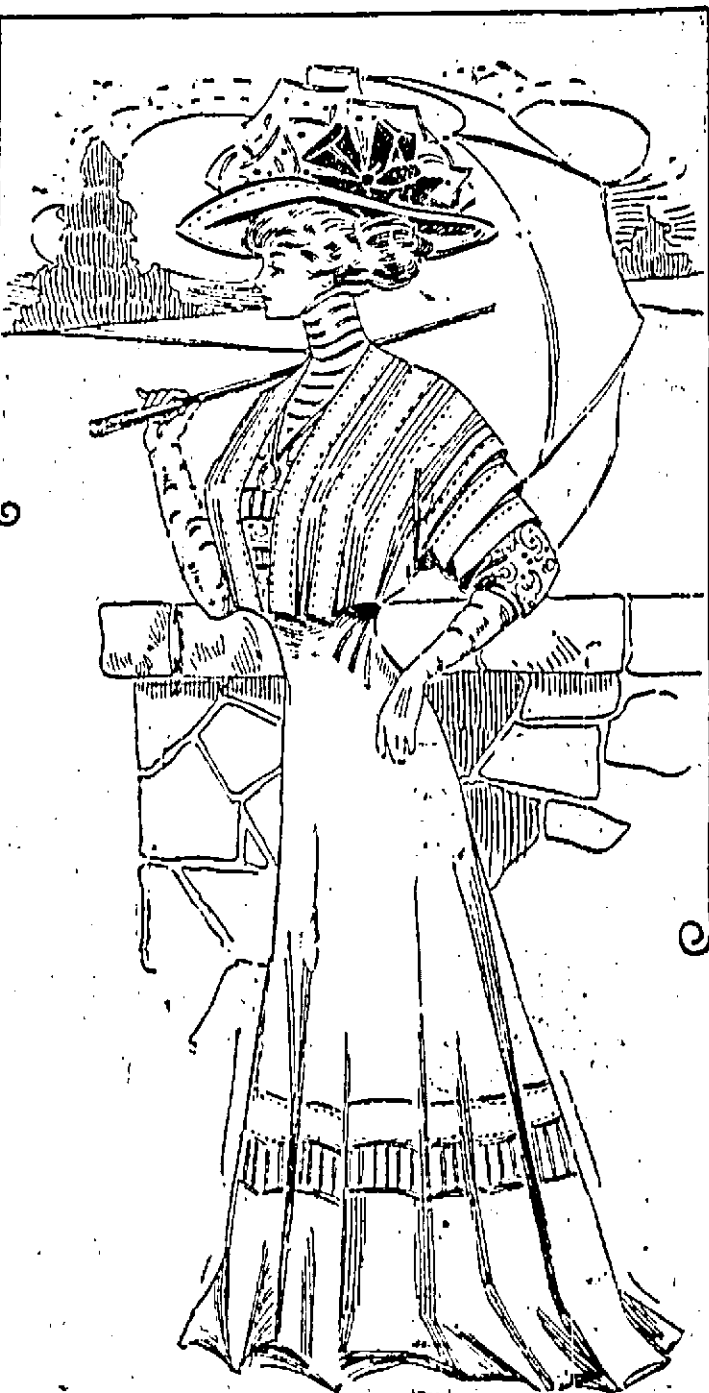

If you are unwilling to go to the expense of handsome porch curtains and yet want something durable, buy the cheapest grade of matting, new rings to the side and run cords through so you can draw them up and down at your pleasure, and you will be charmed with the result. If the opening between your pillars is larger than the stripes, take two widths and sew them together on the sewing machine with a very loose stitch; then open them out and you will find they look better and more durable than if sewed by hand. If your old willow chairs look soiled and shabby, try making a paste of Fuller's earth and soap. Rub the soiled chair with this and then turn the hose on and rinse thoroughly. Wipe as dry as possible and place in a shady place where there is a current of air so they will dry quickly. Be sure to select a dry, hot day for any work of this kind. Drying quickly is the secret of a successful cleaning willow or reed wares.

Ferns and jardiniere are expensive, as most housekeepers realize, but almost as good an effect can be gained by using the large brackets, that one can dig for one's self at the end of almost any car line, in place of the ferns. And did you ever try using the common grey jars that cost from 10 to 25 cents, according to size, as jardiniere? The grey color is harmonious and cool, and the shape is simple and unobtrusive and they may be bought in almost any size, almost anywhere. One of the prettiest porches I have seen this summer used the grey jars and brackets; the matting repeated the color of green, and the rug was green and tan. The willow chairs in natural color were supplemented by an old wooden rocker that the ingenuous daughter of the house had stained a fine mossy green. The cushions, covered with green denim, with the exception of a blue pillow, made of gorgeous balm of Gilead and covered with posies in natural tint and one or two in cool white linen embroidered in simple designs in green. The hammock which swung at the end of this delightful summer parlor was green and the effect was most soothing on the hottest days.

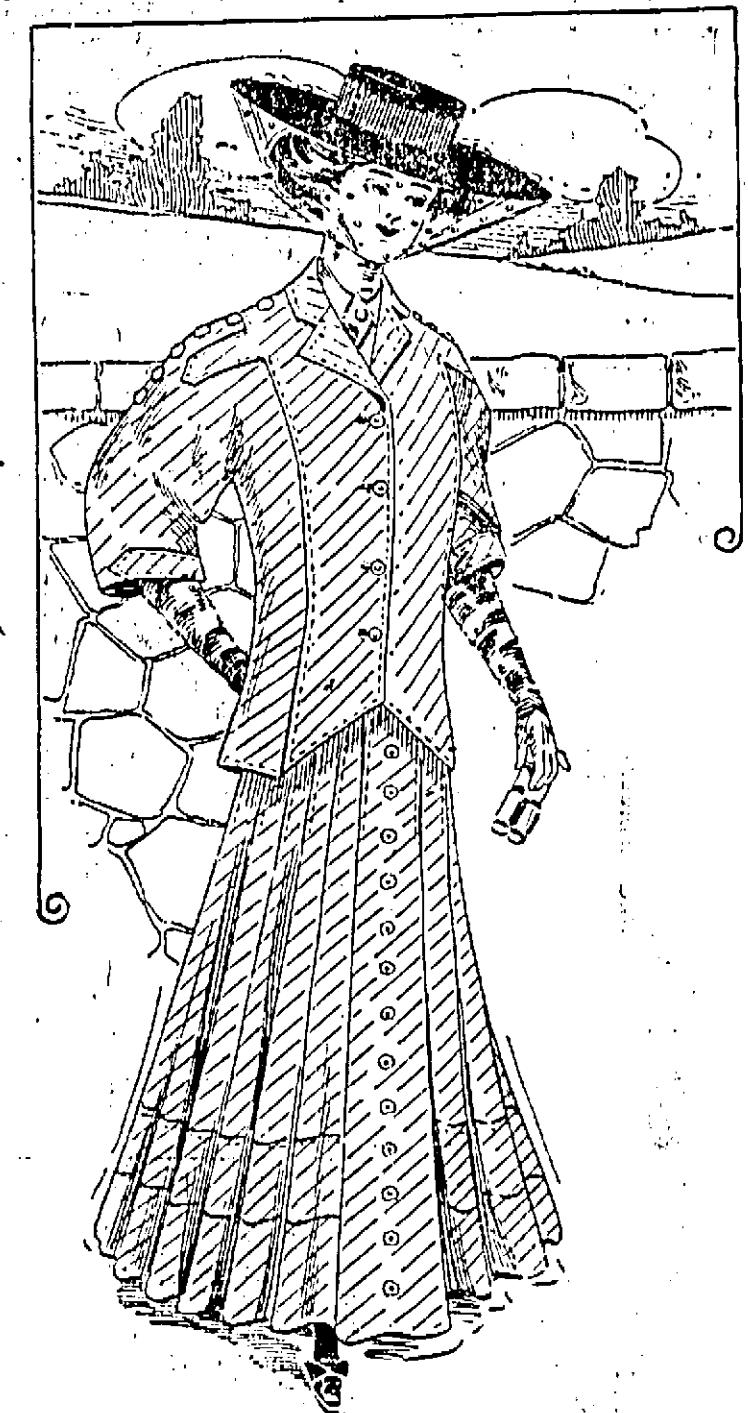

With a few pleasant books, a few delightful friends and such a charming nook, what can the summer resort offer that compares?

UP-TO-DATE FASHIONS

MODISH CALLING COSTUME.

Here is a charming suggestion for an afternoon gown in lettuce green voile, which there is also elaborate use of tucking and attached bands of the material. The underparts of sleeves are heavy all over white lace. A large black straw hat is trimmed with a profusion of green leaves and a huge bow of black velvet ribbon on left side.

BROWN AND WHITE STRIPED SERGE.

Striped materials are tremendously popular this season and especially is above the hem. The coat differing this so of serge. Above cut illustrates a somewhat from the regulation modes a clever two piece suit in brown and white, the stripes running on the bias of both skirt and coat. There is a panel front in former, button trimmed for wear at shore or in the mountains.

Odd Wedding Gift.

One of the newest things in the way of a wedding present is a set of push buttons for every room in the house. They were of beaten gold and jade, pale ones for the light decorated rooms and dark ones for the heavier decorations. This is a new idea, but some one has suggested gold keys as even newer.

Husband's Testimonial.

RECTOR, THE SPEED MARVEL.

University of Virginia Runner Promising Man on Olympic Team.

No figure in the arena of amateur athletics today commands more attention than that of James A. Rector of the University of Virginia. Rector's sensational running in the 100 yard dashes this year stamps him as a possible world's champion. The former Lawrenceville boy has run "the hundred" consistently in 9.45 seconds. Once he did 9.35 on a dead still day, and once with half a mile behind him Rector came home in 9.25. In all these races the Virginia athlete was clocked by competent though not expert timers.

In the recent Olympic tryouts at Philadelphia Rector made good. He failed to win the 100 meter dash, but he equaled the world's record of 10.45 seconds in winning the first heat and was second to Lawson Robertson in the final, after being set back a yard for a false start. He beat Nat Cartmell of Pennsylvania even with that handicap, and that proved his claim to greatness.

Rector is "set up" much on the style of Arthur Duffey, the real 9.35 sprinter. He stands a bit under five feet seven inches and tips the beam at 133 pounds. He resembles Duffey in action, too, with that same quiet, snappy leg action used by the Georgetown flier. Rector gets away like a flash of lightning and finishes just as fast.

Paris French in Canada.

"Where does monsieur come from?" asked Jean.

"From New York."

"New York? Why, I did not know that French was spoken in New York."

"No," I explained, "but I learned my French in Paris."

"Paris? Where is that?"

I explained once more that Paris was a city in the great country of France.

"Oh, yes, France. I have heard of that. Well!" he said, "decidedly it is not good French, that Paris French!"

Then, evidently with the kindly intent of softening the blow, he added, "however, I can understand you."—Birge Harrison, in Scribner's.

HUMMELL, ALL AROUND STAR.

Has Done Everything but Catch Since He Joined Brooklyn Team.

"Silent John" Hummell, who is on the payroll of the Brooklyn National league club, has only to catch a game now and he will go down in the baseball book as having played every position on the diamond.

Three years ago a message came to the Brooklyn grounds that there was a pretty good ball player up in Holyoke, and the Brooklyn club got him. In his three years he has moved into the front rank of utility men. He does all his work in a cool, unassuming way. He has nothing to say on or off the field, but what he does with the ball while the game is on is what makes "Silent John" class with the best of all around players.

Just now Hummell is going at a fast clip. He was always a good hitter and is in the 300 class at present. It doesn't make any difference where Patsy Donovan sends him, he never says a word. He picks up his glove and makes good wherever he is assigned. It looks as if Holyoke will never see him again and no other minor league club for some time. Hummell has gathered them up in every position in the outfield and has filled in all around the infield. He went in and pitched a game two years ago in the latter part of the season, and, as said before, he is waiting for a chance to go in and catch a game.

Not Prejudicial.

It is not sufficient ground for reversing a conviction of murder that, on the retrial of the jury, the deputy prosecutor playfully kicked one of the jurors and the latter turned round and in a friendly manner shook his fist in the deputy prosecutor's face. Did You Have

Did you have Shredded Wheat

for breakfast this morning? After you have tried all the "new ones" you will come back to Shredded Wheat, the world's best cereal food. Not so heating as corn or oats and much more nourishing and more easily digested. Try it with milk or cream or with fresh fruits. At your grocers.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Try Toasted TRISCUIT, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon, with butter, cheese or marmalade.

Central Wisconsin Land

Is now in demand and this part of the state is fast settling up. We can now offer some of the best land in the State of Wisconsin near railroads, good towns and in a well settled up country, principally in the northern part of Clark County, at $14.00 to $25.00 per acre.

The wagon roads are not surpassed in the state, they being turnpiked by contract and laid out on section lines. Improved farms in this locality sell from

$75 to $100 Per Acre

Unimproved land has advanced fifty per cent in the last five years, and at the rate this locality is settling up, it will more than equal this advance in the next five years.

What investment will pay better than this land.

We also offer Michigan lands in the fruit belt at $6.00 to $15.00 per acre. Take a few days off and look over the lands we offer and you will never regret it.

Will show Wisconsin lands at any time.

Regular trips made to the Michigan lands, every Friday.

American Woman in German Eyes.

American girls, whether born or merely brought up in America, evidence the same independence of judgment and the same complete self-reliance. It is hard to say whether this is the result of the education in the public schools and colleges or in their freedom from that condition of legal and social subservience to which the gentler sex is doomed in older countries.—Max von Bismarck in Berlin Deutsche Review.

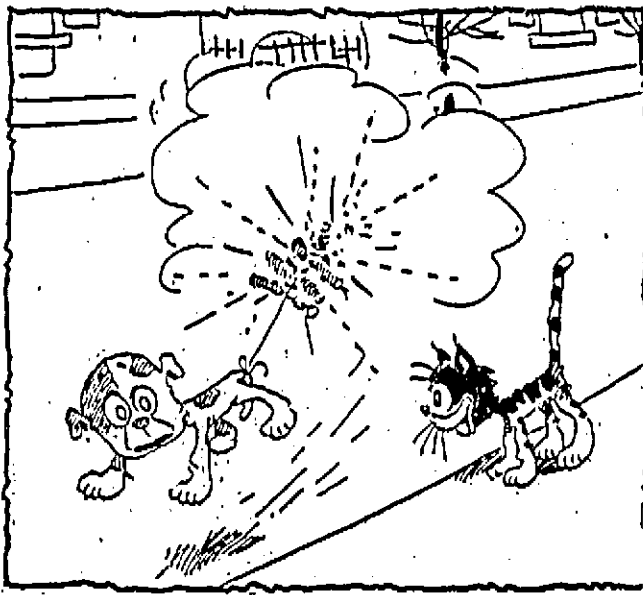

Need of Industrial Education.

In prevailing conditions, trade schools are an absolute necessity. Our boys cannot all become professional men. Many branches of commerce and industry are so specialized that training is absolutely necessary. Unless we provide this training, our schools will turn out a lot of idlers who have no future, unless their wealthy parents can make money in some venture.—Herr Ullman, School Director, Berlin.

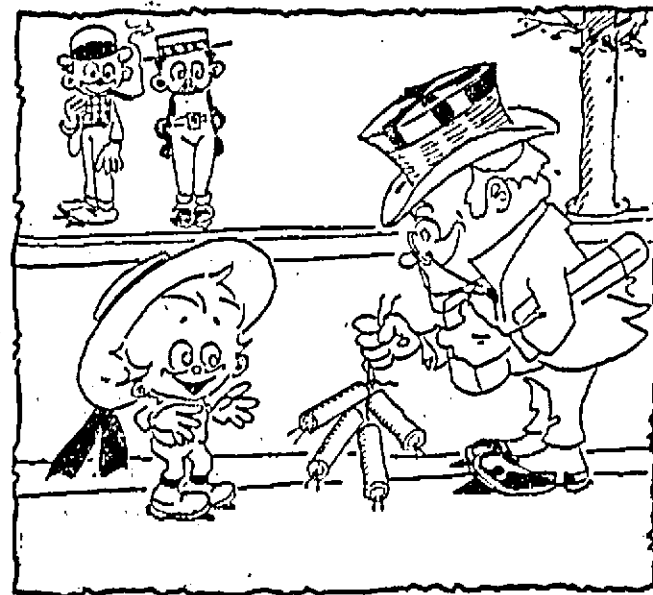

HOW SOME PEOPLE WILL CELEBRATE THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

HE WASN'T IN IT.
"Well, well! You certainly must have had a big celebration on the Fourth."
"Yes. But you ought to see Willie. He had $2.00 worth more of fireworks than me!"

A CELEBRANT.
"The Cat—Why, Fido, you're real patriotic, ain't you?"

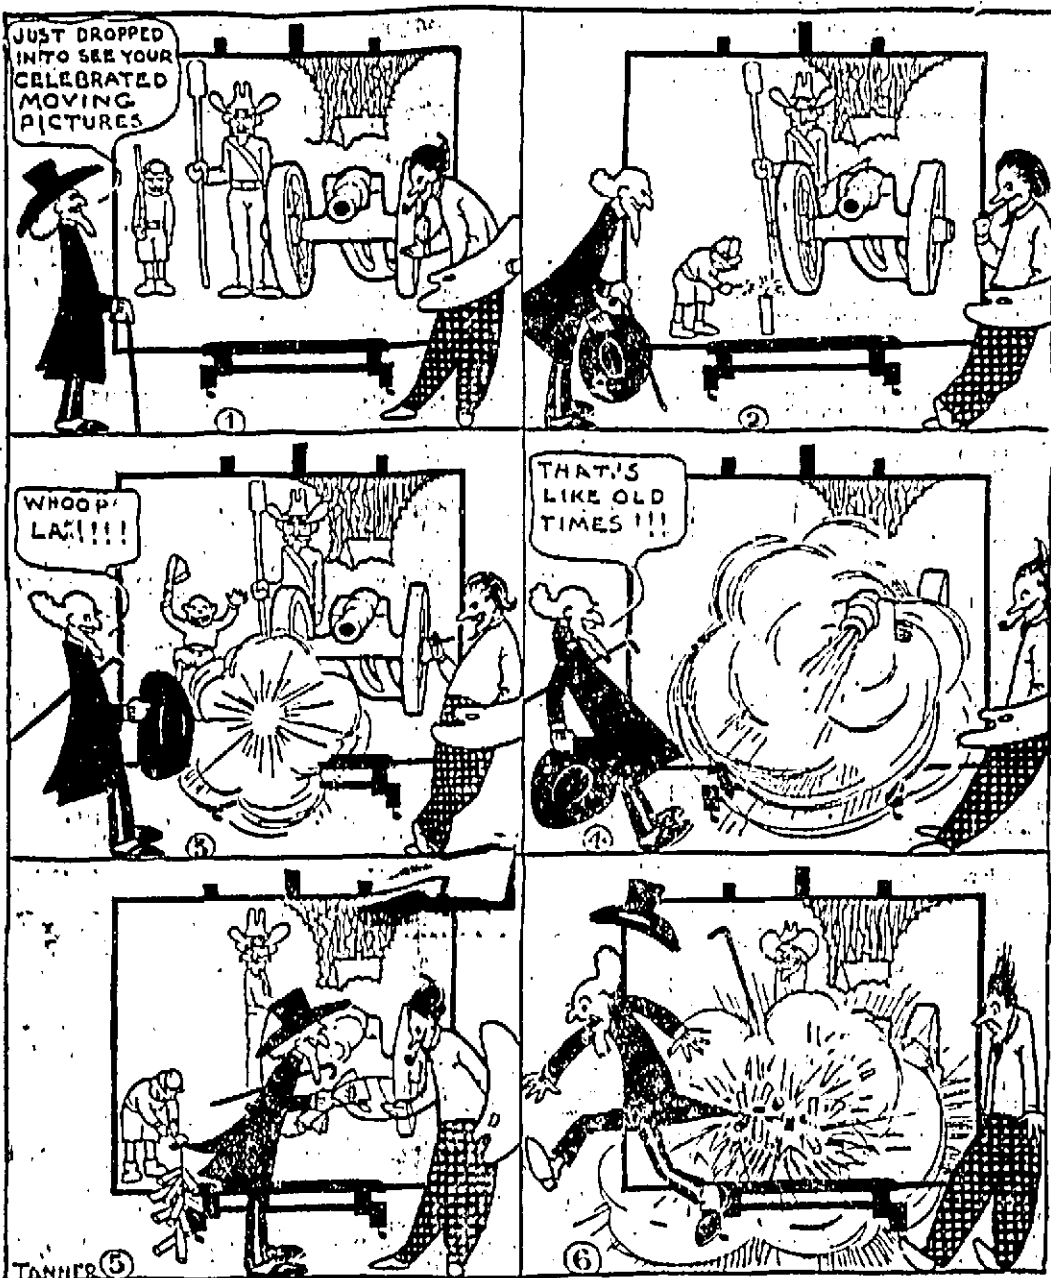

AN EYE TO BUSINESS.
Jinks—That old man must be a philanthropist. He's been giving away fireworks to children all day.
Blanks—If 'mi He's a doctor!

GOALS WILL BE GOALS.

Not Necessary to Boil Clothes

Some women think it is; but that does not alter the facts.

Nine-tenths of the discomfort and half the hard work of wash-day is due to the idea which so many women have; that it is necessary to boil clothes.

It is, if you use ordinary laundry soap. But not, if you use P. & G. Naphtha Soap.

With P. & G. Naphtha Soap and cold, or lukewarm water, you can do more work and better work, than with ordinary laundry soap and boiling water. Do it quicker. Do it easier.

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is for sale in almost every grocery in this city.

The price is 5 cents a cake.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

When Freedom from her mountain height
Unfurled her standard to the air
She gave no thought to what a sight
Of Trouble we would have to bear!
Who little knew that time would be
When it would all have to require
To curb her lively progeny
And quench their patriotic fire.

Who never dreamed her valiant youth
So ardently would celebrate
That her great day would grow in truth
A thing for men to exult in
That people over all the land
Would her enthusiastic revels
And try to some more powerful strand
Or wish they might be deaf awhile.

And if the goddess should today
Declare her sentiments to us
Do not doubt but she would pray
A worship not so strenuous
So give her praise—an ample share
Nor yield an atom of your joys
But—just a little more of noise.
And just a little less of noise.

The Clerk—I know dot, lady. Id vos a safety plumbel.

ALWAYS GOT THE CHEAPEST.
Cook—Come and dine with me at our new boarding-house tonight, will you?
Hook—What are you going to do?
Cook—Wait till I look at the market report and see what meat is the cheapest to-day.

BOBBYHUN UPS AND DOWNS.
"Our lawn mower burned with the barn."
"That was too bad."
"I think so. The neighbor who bought it so he says we have got to pay for it."

NO USE.
Mr. Freshy—Why don't you save up your money for a rainy day?
Hattie—Every time it rains I get so nervous I don't know I wouldn't be able to go out.

JOHNNY ON THE FOURTH.

My dear Teacher—You have asked me to write a composition on the Fourth of July, and I will begin by saying that it's a bully old day. It beats three circuses and a dog fight rolled into one. I always pity the boy who died just before the Fourth and went to heaven and cut himself out at a good thing.

The 4th of July is given us to anticipate how good the lemonade will taste, and the 5th to wish that we hadn't drank over 30 glasses of it.

Few boys understand what a close call we had from not having any Fourth at all. We had gone along for years and years without one, and had scarcely heard of fireworks and ginger bread, when King George, over in England, got his back up and said to his soldiers:

"Those Yankees are getting altogether too saucy, do over there and lick them out of their boots a few times and teach them who's who in England."

"It shall be done," replied his soldiers, and away they came.

Now, the Yankees objected to being licked. They therefore got together and sent word to General Washington that there was a row brewing, and he was asked to take command and see the thing through. He did not wait a minute before saying:

"Well, of course I will. Shoulder arms—right the march!"

And they marched away and fit at Lexington, and Bunker Hill, and Saratoga and Yorktown, and the ships lit on water, and after many years King George said:

"I have bit off more'n I can chew, and my soldiers shall come back home, and the Yankees can take their old United States and go to bed with it."

And we went to bed and voted to have a glorious old Fourth of July every year, and ever since then we have been right and up and galloping on it all the time. And that's all.

JOE KERLIK.

ALSO SO.
Some people listen to our jokes as if they had the blues.
They're like the boys fireworks which do their part refuse.
The sensitive cracker with the optimistic fuse.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.
"I'm full of American spirit!"
"You are?" asked his wife with a shrug.
"You're full, for a fact, but I fear it is spirit that comes from a jug."

HEAVENLY HERE.
Widow—Are you sure it was my little boy who lost out in the accident?
Neighbor—As well as I could judge, ma'am. After the explosion there wasn't much of him left.

WHERE IN IT?
Oh, for a land of pure delight
Where careless cracker never fright;
Where careless men and reckless boys
Do not invoke the god of noise!

GETTING READY.
Red-coated crackers primly stand,
With wheels and things on either hand;
And expectation thrills the land.

The strident Fourth will soon be due,
And boys of every age and hue
Are "singing up" to see it through.

THE FOUR "CORNERS."
The dinnical autocrat adopted melodramatic threats toward his weaker rival.
"I will pursue you to the four corners of the earth!" he said.
"But the earth hasn't any corners."

THIS REASON.
Hicks—What makes him so proud and haughty?
Wicks—They thought he was lost at sea and the passengers all perished in obituary notices of him. Finally he turned up safe and sound, and since he's read those notices he's all puffed up.

NOT HER OWN.
Mrs. D.—I should think you would be afraid to let your little boy have such big fireworks.
Mrs. D.—Oh, yes. My husband's child by his first wife, you know.

A FOURTH OF JULY WARNING.

Here are a few illustrative "Fourth American." If "Young America" will take the lesson to heart there will be of accidents every Independence day fewer powder blown faces, fewer fatalities and fewer accidents following the explosion of fireworks. The thoughtless enthusiasm of "Young America" of the Fourth of July, 1908, toward other children.

1. Don't hold your firecrackers in your hand and close to your face when lighting the fuse.
2. Don't get too close to set pieces when touching them off and particularly don't hold your face over the fuse which you are lighting.

HAVE MANY NARROW ESCAPES.

Yet Cowboys Are Rarely Killed or Injured in Accidents.

Now, after the day's work was practically over, we had our first accident, says a writer in Outing Magazine. The horse ridden by a young fellow from Don Cabanos slipped, fell and rolled quite over his rider. At once the animal lunged to his feet; only to be immediately seized by the nearest rider. But the Don Cabanos man lay still, his arms and legs spread abroad, his head doubled sideways in a horribly suggestive manner. We hopped off. Two men straightened him out, while two more looked carefully over the indications on the ground.
"All right," sang out one of those, "the horn didn't catch him."
He pointed to the indentation left by the pommel. Indeed, five minutes brought the man to his senses. He complained of a very twisted back. Homer sent one of the men in after the bod-wagon, by means of which the sufferer was shortly transported to camp. By the end of the week he was again in the saddle. How men escape from this common accident with injuries so slight has always puzzled me. The horse rolls completely over his rider, and yet it seems to be the rarest thing in the world for the latter to be either killed or permanently injured.

WHEN SMALLPOX WAS COMMON.

A Century or So Ago Every One Expected to Have Disease.

"All our ancestors," said a physician, "were pock-marked, and smallpox was a recommendation if you were looking for work."
"What I mean is that you couldn't get a job if you had not had smallpox. No one wanted a servant who was liable at any moment to be stricken down with the loathsome disease. Hence—"
He opened a newspaper volume of 1774.

HAD SHORTENED UP HIS NAME.

Case Where Some Abbreviations Might Be Pardonable.

The names bestowed upon some of the small southern darlings remind one of those of the old Roundhead days—Hope-Above-Williams, Have-Faith-to-be-Saved-John Mitchell, and so on. Not long ago a visitor in Richmond was having his shoes polished by a little coal-black specimen about 18 inches in height, but possessed of gleaming white teeth and rolling eyes. "What is your name?" the visitor idly asked. "Gen, sah," was the reply, accompanied by a grin of startling proportions.
"Gen?" I suppose that is an abbreviation of general? The visitor, who had some idea of the fondness of negroes for titles, inquired.
"No, sah, don't know as 'tis," was the reply, "abbreviations" evidently being too much for him. "Mah sho' nough name am 'Genes-XXX-33-So-Shall-My-Lighteousness-Auswer-for-Mo-In-Time-to-Come-Washington Carter," an' day des calls me 'Gen' for short!"—The Bohemian.

GENTLE VOICE A GREAT CHARM.

One of the Most Powerful Attractions in a Woman.

Very few women realize what an effect a sweet voice has on a man. A woman may be very pretty to look upon, may be faultlessly and bewitchingly attired and attractive in every way, and yet directly she opens her mouth and speaks the spell is broken, the charm is gone. And this need never be.

Very few voices are so naturally bad that they will not succumb to training, and the voice can be trained to be just as sweet and gentle as one pleases to make it.

A woman should speak in a low voice. She should not allow her voice to raise itself to a high pitch.

A shrill-voiced woman is terrible. She should not shout her orders to the servants down the stairs, nor call to any one who may be in another part of the house. This shouting and railing of the voice spoils the tone and quality of the voice and tends to make it harsh. A pretty voice is a powerful attraction in a woman and she who would add to her charms a wondrous fascination should cultivate a voice "ever soft, gentle and low."

MOTHER INSTINCT WAS STRONG.

Old Lady Ready to Aid Any One She Thought Needed It.

A woman who looked as if she had a commuter's ticket in her handbag kept a long line of customers waiting in a New York bank one morning recently. She was writing something and was in no hurry. She was not one of the fashionable "no hips" creatures, but was of such generous proportions that she could not be circumscribed. There was nothing to do but wait and wonder what her business was. The cashier himself was in doubt, but waited politely to see.

"There, young man," she announced triumphantly to the cashier after putting her pencil in her mouth for the fiftieth time, "there is a prescription that has been in our family for 50 years. It will knock that cold of yours out of you. Hustle right out and get it filled and be sure and soak your feet in hot mustard water to-night. Don't let your cold run on."

The smiles that went round were kindly ones, it seemed so good to meet a universal "mother" ready to coddle any human being that she thought needed her ministrations.

Take Celestial Bridegroom.

At Los Angeles, Cal., the other day a rich Chinese merchant was married to a colored woman, and almost the entire colored population turned out to witness the marriage. The ceremony was performed in one of the colored churches by Rev. C. H. Anderson, for which he received a fee of $50. The Chinaman, whose name is Koon Schuck, was attired in American clothing of the latest fashion, and his bride, Miss Anna Laura James, was dressed in a manner that would have been envied by many a white belle. The bridal gown was of the finest white satin trimmed with real lace, and on her head was a hat covered with white ostrich plumes and satin plumes to match. After the ceremony the people retired at once to their own homes, a $7,000 mansion on a popular street, which had been previously deeded as a wedding present to the bride.

Boy Originated Safety Pin.

"The originator of the safety-pin," said an historian of inventions, "was a little boy, an English blacksmith's son."

"The little boy—Harrison by name—had to look after his baby brother. The baby often cried, and his tears were usually to be traced to pin punctures. The boy nurse tried a long time to bend pins into such a form that they could be used with safety to his brother's flesh.

"In this he failed; but his father, the blacksmith, perceived the utility of the idea the lad had been at work on, took it up on his own account, and eventually turned out the safety-pin that is in use to-day all over the world."

DRUNKENNESS

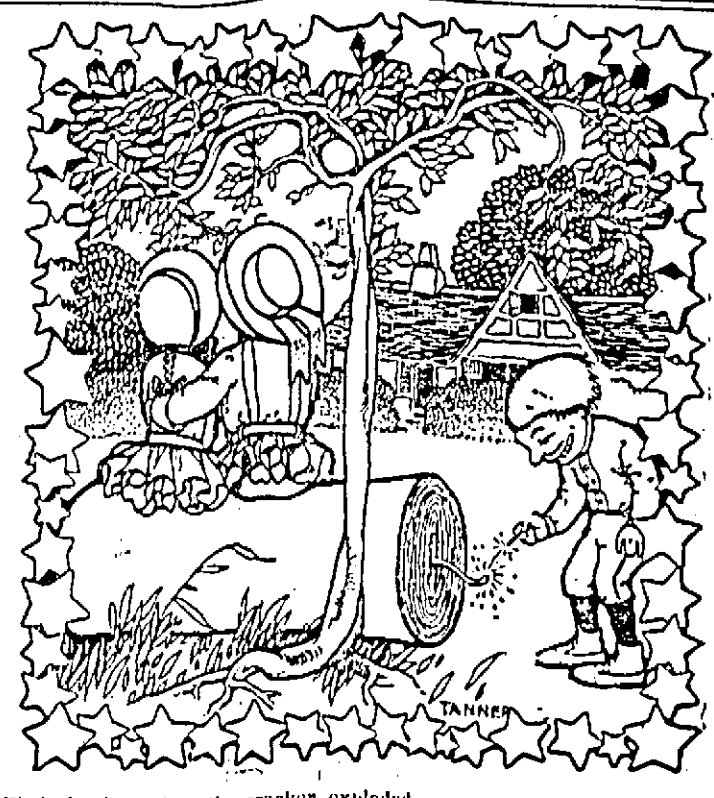

A Curable Disease

Eminent Physicians and Scientific Men Agree That it Should be Treated as Such.

Drunkenness is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day, the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.

The treatment used successfully by thousands right in their own homes is Orrin's. It is a scientific cure for Drunkenness and has given such universal satisfaction that it is sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money will be refunded. This guarantee is given in good faith and is carried out to the letter. Orrin is not a new remedy; it has been sold by the leading druggists in every city for years. It has lifted tens of thousands from the depths to worthy manhood and has the hearty endorsement of grateful men and women in every state in the Union.

Orrin No. 1 is the secret remedy; Orrin No. 2, is for those willing to take the treatment. The former costs $1.00. The guarantee is the same in either case. Write to The Orrin Co., Washington, D. C., for free treatise on Drunkenness, mailed in plain sealed envelope. Orrin will be mailed sealed on receipt of price. Sold by leading druggists and in this city by People's Drug Co. and King's Pharmacy.

One Minute Washer

You'd be surprised how hard it is to stop the machine when once this wheel gets up speed. Two strokes of the handle are usually sufficient to get under headway, then the flywheel does half the work.

The Three Essentials

Clean Washing—

The "One Minute" Washer washes cleaner than other machines on account of twice the agitation of clothes being secured through any given movement of the operating handle. Each forward and backward movement of the handle causes a like motion of the clothes agitator, forcing the clothes to the outside of the tub and against the corrugations. By reason of this high speed agitation of clothes cleaning currents of hot, soapy water are forced through and through every fabric, removing all dirt in less time and without wear on the garments. This principle, also creates more suds, thus meaning a saving in soap.

Easy of Operation—

The "One Minute" Washer we claim, without dispute, to be the easiest running machine on the American market. The principle of employing reciprocating motion through compound operating levers develops three times the power of rotary motion, thus accomplishing the desired result with one-third the labor. Furthermore, the ball-bearing fly-wheel attachment under tub relieves the monotony of jerks and speed variations so common and tiresome in other makes.

Timely Work—

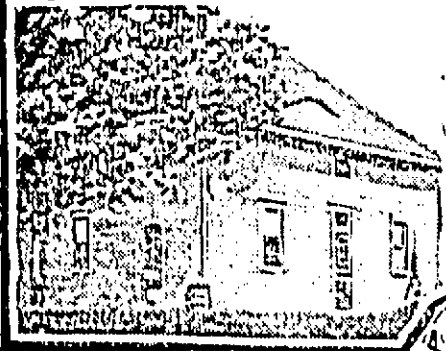

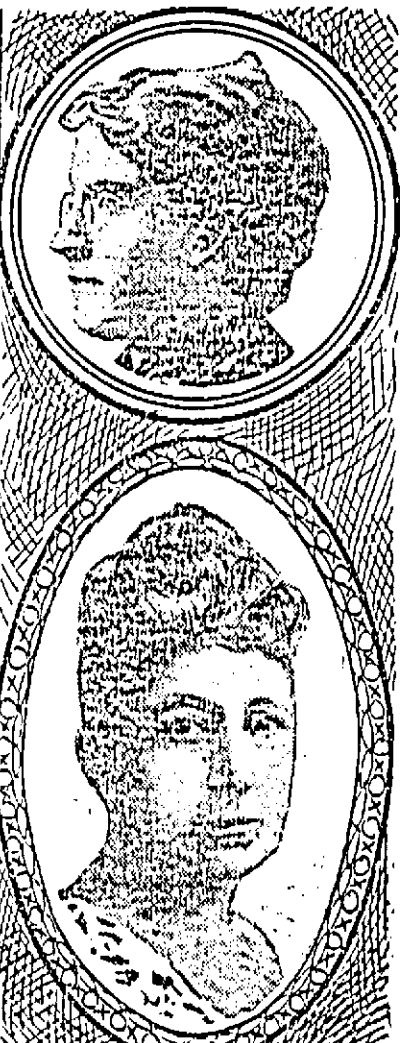

The "One Minute" Washer in operation is in keeping with the fast pace of the times. It runs easier than others and has a higher speed agitation of clothes, therefore must do the work in less time, all things being equal. It saves time, labor and soap. One trial is sufficient to demonstrate the truthfulness of all claims made.

Home of Pilgrim Brotherhood and Mrs. Mary Hunter, who Parted. Chicago, Ill.—Great excitement attends the developments in the investigation of the hideous workings of the Brotherhood of Pilgrims, at Zion City. The investigation follows the death of Mrs. Thompson, a member of the cult, who it is claimed fasted until her death in order to test her faith. Others claim, that she begged for food and drink and the attendants and friends refused. The doctor claims it was cancer. Following the announcement that arrests were contemplated as a result of alleged irregularities in connection with Mrs. Thompson's death, Mrs. Hunter, the present leading foster of the "home," left on a "visit to friends."
